2. where the property liable to estate duty is not free estate, but passes under a Will or Settlement, or by survivorship in joint tenancy, the above draft Bank Guarantee should be amended by limiting its period to "Three months after the issue of the provisional Schedule of Property or until Six months after the date of this letter whichever period is the earlier."

Note:-

- 1. The Estate Duty Commissioner reserves the right to call for Additional/other security should circumstances require.
- 2. The issue of provisional papers is a non-statutory concession granted to facilitate earlier administration of estates, and remains wholly a matter within the discretion of the Estate Duty Commissioner.
