

INLAND REVENUE DEPARTMENT NOTICE

Pay promptly as second instalment is falling due

The second instalments of tax for the year of assessment 2024/25 are generally falling due in April. The Inland Revenue Department urges taxpayers to note the due dates as stated on their demand notes and make prompt payments.

Tax payment can be made by:

- PPS
- Bank ATMs
- Payment via Internet
- Payment in Person
- Payment by Post

It pays to pay tax on time

Please pay tax on time to avoid penalty and the inconvenience that might be caused by recovery actions taken by this Department.

Default in tax payment can lead to the following recovery actions. No prior notice will be given.

- Immediate imposition of 5% surcharge; plus a further 10% surcharge on sums remaining unpaid (including 5% surcharge) 6 months after due date
- Recovery from third parties (including employers, banks, tenants or debtors)
- Institution of civil proceedings in court
- Application for Departure Prevention Direction to prevent the defaulter from leaving Hong Kong
- Petition for bankruptcy/winding up order against the defaulter

Taxpayers with financial difficulties in settling their tax bills by the due dates may write in to apply for payment by instalments. If approved, surcharges will be imposed on tax remaining unpaid after the due date.
