PERSONAL INFORMATION COLLECTION STATEMENT

The provision of personal data required by this form and during the processing of your application is voluntary. However, if you do not provide sufficient information, the Department may not be able to process your application. The Department will use the information provided by you for the purposes of the Ordinances administered by it and may disclose/transfer any or all of such information to any other parties provided that the disclosure/transfer is authorised or permitted by law. Except where there is an exemption provided under the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance, the data subject has the right to request access to and correction of his/her personal data. The data subject should send such request in writing to the Assessor at GPO Box 10851, Hong Kong and quote his/her file number in this Department.

Notes

1. The competent authority of Hong Kong may refuse to issue a certificate of resident status where it is clear that the applicant would not be entitled to the tax benefits under the Arrangement. Upon receipt of an application, the competent authority of Hong Kong will examine the information supplied and may request further information from the applicant, and if the case is justified, will issue a certificate of resident status. The processing of the application normally requires 21 working days. Generally, the certificate of resident status will be sent by ordinary mail to the applicant's postal address unless the applicant requests to collect it in person. Applicant should be aware that issue of a certificate of resident status will not guarantee a successful claim for the tax benefits under the Arrangement. The decision as to whether the tax benefits can be granted is, ultimately, one to be made by the Mainland tax authorities. It will be up to the Mainland tax authorities to determine whether all the relevant conditions are fulfilled and whether the tax benefits can be granted.
2. In respect of the Arrangement, a certificate of resident status issued to an applicant for a particular calendar year generally serves as a proof of the Hong Kong resident status of the applicant for that calendar year and the two succeeding calendar years. For example, where an applicant has been issued with a certificate of resident status for the calendar year 2018, the applicant's application for certificate of resident status for the two succeeding calendar years 2019 and 2020 would not be necessary. In case there are/were changes in the applicant's circumstances such that the applicant will cease/ceased to meet the conditions for enjoying tax benefits under the Arrangement, the certificate of resident status issued would not serve as a proof of the applicant's Hong Kong resident status after the changes.
3. Where the applicant, for example, is a recipient of dividends, interest or royalties and its right to use and enjoy the income is constrained by a contractual or legal obligation to pass on the payment received to another person, the applicant is not the beneficial owner and the name and address of the beneficial owner of that income have to be provided. The agent, nominee or conduit company acting as a fiduciary or administrator is not regarded as the beneficial owner.
4. The form should be accompanied by:
 - (a) a copy of the certificate of incorporation and, if any, a copy of the certificate of change of name, if the applicant is a company;
 - (b) a certified true copy of the partnership agreement and the particulars of each partner during the calendar year(s) of claim, including the name, Hong Kong identity card number / business registration number and address, if the applicant is a partnership (other than limited partnership fund);
 - (c) a copy of the certificate of registration and, if any, a copy of the certificate of change of name, if the applicant is a limited partnership fund;
 - (d) a certified true copy of the trust deed, if the applicant is a trust; or
 - (e) a certified true copy of the constitution, if the applicant is a body of persons;unless a copy of the same has been provided in another application and the relevant reference number of that application is provided by the applicant in item 5 of the Appendix.
5. The form should be signed by:
 - (a) the director, secretary or manager, if the applicant is a company;
 - (b) the precedent partner of the partnership, if the applicant is a partnership (other than limited partnership fund);
 - (c) the general partner or authorized representative of the limited partnership fund, if the applicant is a limited partnership fund;
 - (d) the trustee, if the applicant is a trust; or
 - (e) the principal officer of the body of persons, if the applicant is a body of persons.
