STAMPING PROCEDURES AND EXPLANATORY NOTES

Stamping of Shares Transfer

Contract Notes

Contract notes are required to be executed and stamped within a specified period (see para. 5 below) after any sale or purchase of Hong Kong stocks is effected. While there is no specified format of such instruments, the Stamp Duty Ordinance (Cap.117) requires that a contract note should contain the following particulars:-

- a) whether the person effecting the sale or purchase of the Hong Kong stock is acting as principal or agent and, if as agent, the name of the principal;
- b) the date of the transaction and of the making of the contract note;
- c) the quantity and description of such Hong Kong stock;
- d) the price per unit of such Hong Kong stock and the amount of the consideration or, in the case of an exchange, particulars of the property for which such Hong Kong stock is exchanged; and
- e) the date of settlement.

2. Contract notes are stamped by reference to the price paid. If the price paid is considered substantially below the market value of the shares, stamp duty will be assessed based on the market value of the shares as at the date of sale and purchase/transfer of the shares. For quoted shares, the last closing price of the stock in the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong will normally be accepted as the value of the share transferred for the purpose of calculating stamp duty. In the case of unquoted shares, the value of the stock has to be ascertained from the latest accounts of the company in respect of which share(s) therein is/are to be transferred. Other supplementary information may also be requested by the Stamp Office if so warranted.

3. Contract notes are NOT required in the case of transferring shares as a gift. In such a scenario, the instrument of transfer is chargeable to a fixed duty of $5 each plus the full ad valorem stamp duty by reference to the value of shares transferred in accordance with the basis stated in paragraph 2 above.

Supporting Documents Required

4. While stamp duty on transactions on quoted shares are usually collected through the Stock Exchange and the contract notes are made and stamped by the stock brokers with authorization from the Collector of Stamp Revenue, contract notes and instruments of transfer of unquoted shares should be presented to the Stamp Office for stamping. To enable the Stamp Office to assess the proper amount of stamp duty payable, the following documents and information should be submitted together with the transfer documents:-

- (a) the Articles of Association of the company of which shares are being transferred;
- (b) a certified true copy of the Agreement for Sale and Purchase of the shares if there is any, or otherwise, a confirmation by way of a letter signed by either the vendor or purchaser that no such an agreement exists;
- (c) a statement on whether the Company and its subsidiary/(ies) (if any) has acquired any landed property, rights to acquire landed property or investments and, if so, with a completed schedule of the landed property in the proforma as attached;

- (d) the following documents if the company involved has commenced business:-
- the latest audited accounts of the company and its subsidiary/(ies) (if no consolidated accounts is prepared);
 - certified management accounts of the company and its subsidiary/(ies) (if no consolidated accounts is prepared) from the end date of the latest audited accounts made up to a date within 3 months before the date of transfer, if the audited accounts are not made up to a date within 6 months prior to the date of this transaction;
 - a certified copy of the Return of Allotments for increase of share capital, if any, after the end date of the latest audited accounts;
 - a certified copy of the resolution of meetings of directors for dividends paid or payable, if any, after the end date of the latest audited accounts and specify the date on which members of the company were entitled to the dividend; and
 - any other information and documents, where necessary, in individual case.
- (e) where the company is a recently incorporated one which has not yet commenced business and that no audited accounts have been prepared, a written confirmation supported by a copy of the certificate of incorporation of the company is required.
